

Submission Guidelines

Manuscripts that do not conform to submission guidelines will not be distributed for review. Authors must email submissions to MMJ@mmaglobal.org. Each submission consists of two files:

1. A file containing the manuscript title, each author's name, institution affiliation, and email address. If there are multiple authors, the editor considers the author originating the submission to be the contact author unless otherwise noted.
2. A file containing the manuscript title, an abstract of no more than 150 words, keywords, and manuscript. Author identification or affiliation must not appear anywhere in this file.

Manuscripts must be submitted using 12-point Times New Roman font and should not exceed 30 typewritten pages inclusive of body, tables and figures, and references. Margins must be one-inch. Preparation of the manuscript should follow style guidelines in the most recent Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association. Tables and figures used in the manuscript should be included on a separate page and placed at the end of the manuscript. Authors should insert a location note within the body of the manuscript to identify appropriate placement. Tables and figures should be constructed in table mode of Microsoft Word.

The MMJ editorial board interprets the submission of a manuscript as a commitment to publish in MMJ. Editorial policy prohibits publication of a manuscript that has already been published in whole or in substantial part by another journal. Each manuscript is first assessed by the editor to determine its potential for successful completion of the review process. A manuscript that goes beyond the desk review goes through a double-blind review conducted by members of MMJ's review board. Feedback from reviewers and the editor team's evaluation are used to decide on whether a manuscript will be accepted for publication in MMJ.

Reviewer feedback and the journal's editorial team determine whether a manuscript will be accepted for publication in MMJ. The editorial board reserves the right for stylistic editing of manuscripts accepted for publication in MMJ. Where major stylistic editing becomes necessary, a copy of the accepted manuscript will be provided to the author(s) for final review before publication.

For an accepted paper to be published in MMJ, authors must authorize copyright protection for MMJ prior to publication. Accepted and published manuscripts become the copyright of MMJ.
